BAKING INDUSTRY AWARDS
2011

Entry Form

In-store Bakery
of the Year

Produced by:

British Baker

Category
sponsored by:

Dawn

For the last 23 years, the Baking Industry Awards have recognised achievement and professionalism across the baking industry. All winners are regarded as the best of the best operating in the bakery sector. By entering, you join an exclusive group of achievers.

Why should you enter?

- Be rewarded in front of industry VIPs at a prestigious awards ceremony at the Park Lane Hilton, London
- To demonstrate just how good your business and products really are
- Achieve local and national press coverage
- Use of the special winners' Baking Industry Awards logo after the event
- Reward yourself and your team
- Raise your profile and enjoy coverage in British Baker
- Year-long exposure on www.bakeryawards.co.uk
- Gain new business and contacts

How to enter

- Simply answer the questions listed opposite on a separate sheet, clearly labelled with your name, store/ company name, category entered and question number
- Submit relevant supporting documents
- Complete your details
- Return your completed entry, by Friday 20th May 2011, to:
Helen Law, Baking Industry Awards 2011,
William Reed Business Media, Broadfield Park,
Crawley, West Sussex, RH11 9RT.

The judging

All entry packs will be posted to the sponsors for judging during May. After the paper assessment, the judges will, where appropriate, arrange to meet short-listed candidates to investigate your entry in greater depth and pick their finalists and winner. There will be an independent judge on each judging panel.

The event

The chosen finalists will be invited, with their partners, to the awards at the Park Lane Hilton in London on Wednesday 7th September, 2011 as guests of Dawn Foods and British Baker.

The winner will be announced on the evening and presented with a trophy. Overnight accommodation, if required, will be provided courtesy of Dawn Foods.

Entry deadline: Friday 20th May

In-store Bakery of the Year

Please answer the following questions:

(Please label each separate sheet clearly with your name, store/company name, category entered and question number.)

Please state the number of employees in the in-store bakery for whom you are responsible.

1. Briefly describe your bakery operation.
2. What factor has most influenced the growth in sales in your in-store bakery over the past year?
3. What has been your bakery's most successful product innovation in the past year and why?
4. How do you balance freshness with constant availability?
5. What makes your bakery stand out against your local competitor's ISB?
6. What is the most important part of staff training for your team and why?
7. In no more than 100 words, describe one successful initiative over the past year that has been a real team effort, involving everyone in the bakery (this could be a theme or particular idea – perhaps an improvement in quality, range or production – or a merchandising or customer initiative.)
8. What products do you think will gain popularity in the future?
9. How have you developed your ISB offering to reflect the increasing demand for healthier ranges, such as reduced salt, Omega 3 and seeded products, which boost nutritional intake?

Don't miss out!
Entry deadline: Friday 20th May

Terms and Conditions

1. By entering the Awards, the Entrant will be deemed to have read and understood these rules and to be bound by them. These rules include any instructions set out with the Entry Form.
2. The competition is open to UK residents only. Overseas entrants are not eligible.
3. Individual named entrants may not enter for more than one award. A company may enter for as many awards as it chooses but each entry must be submitted by a different individual. Entrants may not enter for any award which they have won since 1st January 2008.
4. The Organiser reserves the right, at its absolute discretion, to reject any entry that it deems inappropriate.
5. Entry forms and any supporting documents must be sent by pre-paid post or courier, to arrive no later than Friday 20th May, 2011. Proof of posting will not be deemed to be proof of delivery. Supporting documents will be retained by the Organiser.
6. Entries will only be accepted if they are submitted on the Entry Form and completed in full, in ink.
7. Entries must be signed by the person responsible for submitting the entry and to whom all correspondence concerning the Awards should be addressed.
8. Responsibility cannot be accepted for any lost, late or mislaid entry and any entry which is damaged, defaced, illegible or incomplete, or which otherwise does not comply with these terms and conditions, may be deemed invalid in the sole discretion of the Organiser.
9. There will be three finalists for each award from whom will be selected a winner. All of the finalists will be selected during June against the criteria set out in the Entry Form by a panel of independent judges selected by the Organiser and will be notified by post within 14 days.
10. The finalists and winners will be announced at, and will be required to attend, the Awards ceremony at the Park Lane Hilton on Wednesday 7th September, 2011. The winners' names will be published in British Baker.
11. Accommodation in London on the night of the Awards for award finalists will be booked and paid for by the sponsor of the relevant category. In the case of an individual finalist, accommodation will be for the individual and a partner and in the case of a corporate finalist, for a representative of the company and a partner.
12. The judges may decline to make an award in any category if, in their opinion, there are insufficient entries of a winning standard.
13. The Organiser reserves the right to change the categories of the Awards and the judging panel without prior notice to entrants.
14. The decision of the judges on all matters affecting this competition is final and legally binding.
15. No correspondence will be entered into.
16. Winners may be required to take part in some post-event publicity and consent to their name and photograph being used for such purposes.
17. Entrants consent to the publication by the Organiser, in connection with the Awards, of any of the documents or materials constituting their entry.
18. Winners may publicise that they are a category winner in the "British Baker Baking Industry Awards 2011" provided that the category is specified. They will each be sent a specific winner's logo for this purpose.
19. By entering the Awards, all entrants will be deemed to consent to the transfer of their personal data to the Data Controller for the purposes of the administration of the Awards and any other purposes to which the entrant has consented.
20. The Organiser and Data Controller is William Reed Business Media Ltd, Broadfield Park, Crawley RH11 9RT.
